

Addendum to POA executed between us

Pursuant to recent regulatory changes; SEBI, Exchanges, Clearing Corporations and Depositories have put in place a mechanism for Pledge / Re-pledge whereby the securities would not be debited from your demat account for meeting your margin obligations, but would be pledged in our favour and further pledged to clearing member / clearing corporation. It may be noted that securities would continue to be debited from your account for settlement obligations.

As a result the powers conferred upon us to debit securities from your demat account for your margin obligation is replaced with the following clause.

"To instruct the Depository Participant (DP) to initiate/ execute the pledge instruction(s), pledge closure instruction, invocation of pledged shares and all such other instructions with respect to the securities in my/our demat account for any or all dealings which as per 'Tipsons Stock Brokers Private Limited's records/opinion are done/to be done/expected to be done through "Tipsons Stock Brokers Private Limited with respect to the securities from my/our below mentioned Beneficiary Account to the "Client Securities Margin Pledge Account(s)" of 'Tipsons Stock Brokers Private Limited' as mentioned herein below; and/ or to such other Demat account as intimated to me/us, from time to time by "Tipsons Stock Brokers Private Limited" and for creating / maintaining collateral / security/ margin in the form of securities with effect from 01st August 2020.

To re-pledge such securities to the clearing member / clearing corporation as the case may be."
